

Catholic Daughters Install 1948-49 Officers Monday

Installation of new officers featured the June business meeting of Court St. Catherine No. 1378, Catholic Daughters of America Monday evening at parish hall.

District Deputy Mrs. Lucy Greaves, of Redondo Beach, conducted the ceremonies, installing Mrs. Edith Owen as grand regent; Mary Bray, vice-grand regent; Muriel Gately, prophetess; Marguerite Melville, monitor; Theresa McIntier, historian; Hazel Hutton, financial secretary; Evelyn O'Hara, lecturer; Theresa Murray, organist; Joan Donald, treasurer; Florence Turner, sentinel; Frances Forrester, Carol Weber, and Opal Yorker, trustees.

Retiring Grand Regent Frances Forrester conducted the business meeting and later officers-elect donned the insignia of the order and were duly installed. Retiring and new officers wore white formal and corsages of purple and gold.

Mrs. Owen introduced her committee chairmen for the year: Mary Bray, program; Muriel Gately, ways and means; Frances Forrester, Convert League; Rose Jones, Study Club; Laura Felker, philanthropy; Ann MacDonald, co-chairman; Evelyn O'Hara, publicity; Clare Farrell, press book; Agnes Lander, telephone; Bertha Hedberg, hospitably; Florence Turner, sunshine and sick; Marguerite Melville, parliamentarian; Marge Estes, legislation, and Theresa Murray, music.

Plans were outlined for a baked food sale set for Saturday, June 19.

Refreshments were served by the evening's hosts committee headed by Miss Rosa Ortman. The tea table was attractive with silver service and flowers and tapers in pastel shades. Pouring were Mrs. Lucy Greaves, of Redondo Beach, district deputy, and Miss Rosa Ortman.

Mrs. Forrester was recipient of a beautiful silver tray in appreciation for her work as grand regent and Mrs. Greaves was given an addition to her china collection.

Guests included four officers from Court Isabella, of San Pedro.

The C.D.A. Study Club will meet Monday evening with Mrs. Forrester at 1416 Fern avenue.

MISS PATRICIA EADE To Become Bride . . .

Miss Marge Dunham, Bride-Elect Fetes Bridal Attendants

Among the lovely affairs of the week was an attractively appointed dinner party Saturday evening in Brittany Kitchen, Long Beach, when Miss Marge Dunham, bride-elect of Thomas Cottrell, of Long Beach, entertained her bridal attendants.

Guests were Miss Dunham's sister Mrs. Joy Kenworthy, of Hollywood, who will be her matron of honor and the Misses Alyce Marshall, Lillian Strilka, Ima Petty and Louise Peterson bridesmaids, each of whom was the recipient of a personal gift from the hostess.

Other attendants at the ceremony to be held in Colonial chapel, Redondo Beach at 8 o'clock Monday evening, June 21, will be little Joan Raycraft, daughter of Judge Raycraft, of San Pedro, flower girl; Millard Brownlee, of Long Beach, the bridegroom's attendant and Robert Clark, Howard Davis and Jack Langowski, ushers.

Rev. Ben H. Lingenfelter will officiate at the double-ring ceremony.

PATRICIA EADE TO BECOME BRIDE OF WILLIAM LUCAS

Miss Patricia Eade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eade, 1880 W. 202nd street, is being complimented with showers and parties as pre-nuptial courtesies.

Miss Eade will exchange wedding vows with Mr. William Lucas of Los Angeles, at St. Andrews Episcopal church, Sunday evening, June 27, at six o'clock.

The bride-elect received her early education in Lomita schools graduating from Narbonne High School with the winter class of 1948. Enrolling at the University of California at Los Angeles she was graduated in 1947 and is now teaching third grade pupils at the Western Terrace Elementary School in San Pedro.

Mr. Lucas is enrolled as a junior at the same university. He received his early education in the schools of Oceanside and spent three years with the U. S. Army during the war. He is the son of Mrs. Harry Lilly of Port Angeles, Washington.

Several former college students have complimented Miss Eade with pre-nuptial parties and others are scheduled for the next two weeks.

Miss Liz Waite and Miss Margaret Schmidt, college roommates of the bride-elect, were co-hostesses at the Y.W.C.A. in Westwood recently. On Friday of last week members of the faculty at Western Terrace School honored Miss Eade on her birthday by giving her a kitchen shower. Another college friend, Mrs. Richard Christensen of Westwood will be hostess at a shower tomorrow. A group of former Narbonne students will shower her with gifts at the home of Mrs. Verne Farrar in Los Angeles on Thursday night, June 17 and the following Saturday night she will be the honoree at the home of Miss Lois Jayne Allen in Torrance.
